

2009-10 Girls Basketball Team

The 2009-2010 girls basketball team, ending the regular season at 19-1 and as Suburban Council champions, defeated the Academy of the Holy Names 55-36 to earn the program its third Section 2 Class A championship. The next week, the Lady Warriors won the program's first NYSPHSAA Class A Regional championship after earning a decisive 53-35 victory over Malone. Supported by the passionate AP Goldmine, who packed Hudson Valley Community College, the team earned the program's first NYSPHSAA Class A championship by defeating Lakeland 53-46. Finally, the Lady Warriors defeated St. Anthony's of Melville 60-48 at the Glens Falls Civic Center for Averill Park's first Federation title in any sport and the first for a Section 2 girls basketball team since 2001. The 26-1 Lady Warriors earned the distinction of maintaining a #1 ranking in Class A by the New York State Sportswriters Association for the entire 2009-10 season.
