

Meghan O'Shea '06

Meghan is a 2006 graduate of Averill Park High School. She then went on to attend Saint Michael's College where she graduated in 2010 with a Bachelor of Science degree in psychology and a Bachelor of Arts degree in education. Meghan completed her master's degree in special education at Stony Brook University in 2012. She currently resides in Averill Park with her husband Chris and their children Charlie, Shea and Kellan.

At Averill Park Meghan played basketball for four years and soccer for three years. As a basketball player she was a member of the Section 2 Class A championship team (first in program history) as a senior and was named MVP of the tournament. Meghan was a four-time captain of the basketball team. She was named MVP of the Holy Names Holiday Tournament and was named to the All-Tournament team of the Averill Park Tip Off Tournament as a senior. Megan was a Suburban Council all-star and was also named to the all-area team by the Times Union and the Troy Record.

Meghan attended Saint Michael's College on a full basketball scholarship. She was a four-time captain and as a freshman and sophomore led the NE10 Conference in assists.

Meghan returned to Averill Park and coached soccer and basketball from 2010 through 2014.

Meghan's leadership and passion for the game of basketball willed her basketball teams to success throughout her playing career. Her pride and work ethic left a lasting impression on the programs she contributed to well after she graduated.
